

RAILROAD HERITAGE DAYS 2017 PROGRAM

SATURDAY PRESENTATIONS:

- 9:30 a.m.: Hidden Treasures of the Railroad Museum of Pennsylvania, by Museum collections manager Dodie Robbins. Auditorium.
- 10:15 a.m.: Locomotives & Tenders with Modifications, walking tour by Joe Acri. Meet at the rear of the lobby for the tour in Rolling Stock Hall.
- 11:00 a.m.: How the Liberty Bell Won the Great War, by Stephen Fried, bestselling author of Appetite for America: Fred Harvey and the Business of Civilizing the Wild West — One Meal at a Time. Auditorium.
- 1:30 p.m.: Norfolk Southern in Color, by Dr. Jeremy Plant, photographer, author, retired Penn State professor of public policy and member of the Railroad Museum of Pennsylvania's advisory council. Auditorium.

SUNDAY PRESENTATIONS:

- 12:30 p.m.: The B6sb & the M1b Locomotives, walking tour by Joe Acri. Meet at the rear of the lobby for the tour in the outdoor yard.
- 1:30 p.m.: The G5s Locomotive, by Don Fisher. Auditorium.

OTHER SPECIAL FEATURES:

- Blacksmith Frank Gillespie demonstrating his skills. Outdoor Yard.
- The railroad fine art of Peter Lerro. Platform 3 East, Rolling Stock Hall.
- A coloring table for kids. Rolling Stock Hall.
- A vintage pickup truck in Pennsylvania Railroad livery owned and displayed by Ken Briers. Platform 3 East, Rolling Stock Hall.
- Operation Lifesaver. Platform 3 East, Rolling Stock Hall.
- Operating N gauge model train layout by the Capital PenNScalers group. Platform 2 East, Rolling Stock Hall.
- Pennsylvania Railroad air brake instruction car No. 492445, staffed by Ed Thornton. Track 4 East, Rolling Stock Hall.
- Pennsylvania Railroad Technical & Historical Society, Long Island Chapter, Middle Division Chapter and Northern Central Division Chapter displays. Rolling Stock Hall.
- Steinman Station passenger depot, staffed by telegraphers Chip Morgan and Steve Kistler. Platform 1 West, Rolling Stock Hall.