

Railroad Museum of Pennsylvania SPONSORSHIPS

THE RAILROAD MUSEUM OF PENNSYLVANIA MEANS BUSINESS

The world-class Railroad Museum of Pennsylvania is acknowledged as an important player in, and asset to, the quality of life and economic development of Lancaster County and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Museums in general are a key element in attracting and retaining major business activity, and the Railroad Museum of Pennsylvania is no exception. Factors associated with the attractiveness of a new job frequently find that community quality of life was the second most important factor — just below salary — for workers and was more important even than benefits, stock options or company stability.

Our Visitors Are Your Customers and Neighbors

The Railroad Museum of Pennsylvania hosts an average of 125,000 local, regional, national and international visitors annually, and is the most visited museum by far in Lancaster County. About a quarter of a million more log onto our website. Museums rank in the top three for family vacation destinations. People who visit museums spend nearly twice as much on their travel as those who do not.

Museums engage visitors, transform their world, create memories and provide a common experience that people share across generations. They are among the most trusted public institutions in the United States and around the world.

Preserving Our Historic Treasures and Cultural Heritage

Your sponsorship contribution will support significant Railroad Museum of Pennsylvania education, restoration, archival and interpretive programs for today's and future generations.

Museums spend $1.1 billion annually to care for their collections and create a strong connection to the past. The Railroad Museum of Pennsylvania holds its unparalleled railroad heritage collection in trust for the benefit of, and in service to, the public.
